How to register a death

The Registrar requires the following information and documents. The registration must take place in the area where the death occurred, (see the enclosed list of registration offices) and be registered by either a relative, executor, someone present at death, owner/matron of a nursing establishment or a person making all necessary arrangements and paying for the funeral.

Please make an appointment at the appropriate Registrars Office and take the following information and forms with you.

- Doctor's certificate of cause of death or Coroner's certificate of death.
The Funeral Director, GP or Hospital staff will advise you where and when to collect this certificate.
- The Deceased's NHS Number (if available) and National Insurance Number
- The Deceased's birth and marriage or civil partnership certificates (if available)
- A form of ID and Proof of address for the person who is registering the death.

The Registrar will ask you some questions.

- The date and place of death
- The Deceased's last (usual) address
- The Deceased's Full names (including Maiden surname where appropriate)
- The Deceased's Date and Place of Birth
- The Deceased's last occupation and type of industry.
- Name and occupation of the Deceased's spouse or civil partner.
- Whether the deceased was receiving a pension or allowance from public funds.
- If the deceased was married or had formed a civil partnership, the date of birth of the surviving widow, widower or surviving civil partner

IN RETURN FOR THIS INFORMATION THE REGISTRAR (Under normal circumstances) WILL ISSUE YOU WITH THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:-

- Certificate for Burial or Cremation. Known as the Green Form. Hand this to the Funeral Directors as soon as possible. (Failure to do so may delay the funeral service.)
- Death Certificates. Required to obtain the will and for any private pension claims, insurance policies, savings bank certificates and premium bonds. You must purchase originals, no one accepts photocopies.

Death Certificates purchased during Registration cost £11.00 each. (Correct at February 2019)

You can purchase as many copies as you require.

Payment to be made to the Registrar at the time of Registration.
